IN CASE YOU HADN'T HEARD:

WITH NEW B&K 2245 SOUND LEVEL METER, IT'S 'JOB DONE'

Regardless of whether you assess noise in the workplace, investigate noise complaints or work for an organization that makes noise, you have one thing in common – noise measurement and analysis tasks. And although an inevitable part of your job, these tasks are not necessarily something you do every day. So, if getting them done faster, easier and problem-free sounds good, then B&K 2245 is a sound level meter solution designed with you in mind.
